INTRODUCTION

All the praise is for Allaah, the Lord of all that exists. May prayers and peace be upon His servant and Messenger; the one He chose from amongst His creation and the one He entrusted with His revelation; our Prophet and Imaam, Muhammad ibn 'Abdullaah, and upon his family, his companions, and those who traverse upon his path and his guidance until the day of Recompense. As to proceed:

O noble brothers, my speech with you within this lecture will be regarding that which is connected to the fundamentals of Eemaan. This topic was chosen and agreed upon by the university. This is because it is a very important topic, for our religion revolves around these fundamentals. The salvation of the Ummah, its happiness, safety, advancement, and leadership over the nations will continue if it actualizes it in statement and actions, as well as its manners, Jihaad, its taking and giving, and other than it.

MENTION OF THE FUNDAMENTALS WITHIN THE OUR'AAN AND SUNNAH

The Our'aan has clarified these fundamentals within many verses; likewise, our Prophet, upon him be prayers and peace, has clarified them within the authentic Sunnah. They are six fundamentals, and they are the fundamentals of Eemaan. They are the fundamentals of the religion; for Eemaan is the entire religion, and it is Islaam and the guidance. It is righteousness and piety. It is that with which Allaah sent the Messenger, upon him be prayers and peace, from beneficial knowledge and righteous actions. All of it is referred to as Eemaan. These six fundamentals of our religion have been clarified by the Mighty Book within various places and the trustworthy Messenger of Allaah (المَوْلِيَّةُ اللهُ ال clarified them within the Ahadeeth. From that which has come within the Book of Allaah, the Mighty and Majestic, is His statement:

6 | MENTION OF THE FUNDAMENTALS | WITHIN THE QUR'AAN AND SUNNAH

"It is not Al-Birr (piety, righteousness) that you turn your faces towards east and (or) west (in prayers); but Al-Birr is (the quality of) the one who believes in Allaah, the Last Day, the Angels, the Book, the Prophets."

[Soorah Al-Baqarah 2:177]

Allaah, Glorified and Exalted be He, clarified here five of the fundamentals of Eemaan. They are:

- Eemaan in Allaah
- The Last Day
- The Angels
- The Book
- The Prophets

The religion revolves around these five fundamentals, inwardly and outwardly. Allaah, the Majestic and High, has said:

"The Messenger (Muhammad) believes in what has been sent down to him from his Lord, and (so do) the believers. Each one believes in Allaah, His Angels, His Books, and His Messengers. They say, "We make no distinction between one another of His Messengers."

[Soorah Al-Bagarah 2:285]

Allaah, the Glorified and High, clarified here four of the fundamentals within His statement:

Each one believes in Allaah, His Angels, His Books, and His Messengers.

He did not mention the Last Day. However, He mentioned it within the previous verse and within other verses. This is the Sunnah of Allaah within His Book. He mentions the reports from Himself regarding His Names and Attributes, the fundamentals of this religion, the affairs of the Day and Judgment, Paradise, and the Fire, the Messengers and their nations, in various ways such that the reader can find within every place in the Book of Allaah that which will increase him in Eemaan and knowledge; and that he may seek an increase in knowledge in every place within the Book of Allaah and in every Hadeeth from the Messenger of Allaah (المَلِيَّةُ اللهُ اللهُ

Allaah, the Mighty and Majestic, has indicated the last day within the end of the verse wherein He said:

"(We seek) Your Forgiveness, our Lord, and to You is the return (of all)."

[Soorah Al-Baqarah 2:285]

Allaah, the Mighty and Majestic, said:

﴿ يَتَأَيُّهُا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوٓا ءَامِنُوا بِاللّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ وَالْكِنَابِ الَّذِي نَزَّلَ عَلَى رَسُولِهِ وَالْكِنَابِ الَّذِي نَزَّلَ عَلَى رَسُولِهِ وَالْكِنَابِ الَّذِي اَلَّذِي أَنزَلَ مِن قَبْلُ وَمَن يَكْفُرُ بِاللّهِ وَمَلَيْهِ مَن اللّهِ وَالْمَوْمِ الْلَاخِرِ فَقَدْ ضَلَ ضَلَالًا بَعِيدًا
وَمَلَيْهِ كَيْتِهِ وَكُنُبِهِ وَرُسُلِهِ وَالْمُؤْمِ الْلَاخِرِ فَقَدْ ضَلَ ضَلَالًا بَعِيدًا

"O you who believe! Believe in Allaah, and His Messenger (Muhammad), and the Book (the Qur'aan) which He has sent down to His Messenger, and the Scripture which He sent down to those before (Him), and whosoever disbelieves in Allaah, His Angels, His Books, His Messengers, and the Last Day, then indeed he has strayed far away."

[Soorah An-Nisaa 4:136]

Allaah, Glorified be He, has clarified within this verse that disbelief in these fundamentals is straying far away from guidance. The verses of similar import are many. In some places He,

Glorified be He, singles out mention of Eemaan in Allaah, because all of that which is mentioned within the other verses is included within Eemaan in Allaah. In some verses, (He mentions) Eemaan in Allaah and His Messenger, and in some, He only mentions Eemaan in Allaah and the Last Day. This is only due to the fact that the remaining matters are included within that. As it relates to Eemaan in Allaah, the other things which are mentioned within the other verses are included within it—such as Eemaan in the Angels, the Books, the Messengers, and the Last Day. From this is the statement of Allaah, the Majestic and High:

"Believe in Allaah, and His Messenger (Muhammad), and the Book (the Qur'aan) which He has sent down to His Messenger, and the Scripture which He sent down to those before (him)."

[Soorah An-Nisaa 4:136]

He stopped short at mentioning the Eemaan in Allaah, His Messenger, and the Book which was sent down to Muhammad (المَوْلِيَّةُ and the scripture which was sent down from aforetime, and He did not mention the other fundamentals because they are included within Eemaan in Allaah.

10 | MENTION OF THE FUNDAMENTALS | WITHIN THE QUR'AAN AND SUNNAH

Similarly, there is the statement of Allaah, the Majestic and High:

"Therefore, believe in Allaah and His Messenger (Muhammad), and in the Light which We have sent down."

[Soorah At-Taghabun 64:8]

He mentioned Eemaan in Allaah, His Messenger, and the Light which he had sent to Muhammad (Light), which is the Book and the Sunnah. This is because the other affairs are included within that. So the Book and the Sunnah are included with the Light as is everything which Allaah and His Messenger have informed with from that which was and that which is. It all enters into the Light.

Similarly, there is the statement of Allaah, the Majestic and High:

"Believe in Allaah and His Messenger (Muhammad), and spend of that whereof He has made you trustees. And such of you as believe and spend (in Allaah's Way), theirs will be a great reward."

[Soorah Al-Hadid 57:7]

He only mentioned Eemaan in Allaah and His Messenger. This was only due to the fact that the other matters are included within Eemaan in Allaah and His Messenger.

From that which has come within the Sunnah from the Messenger of Allaah (is the well-known Hadeeth of Jibreel, wherein he asked the Prophet (مَا عَلَيْهُ about Islaam, Eemaan, and Al-Ihsaan. He mentioned Islaam firstly, and in another narration he began with Eemaan, then he mentioned Islaam, then Al-Ihsaan. The point is that he mentioned Eemaan as it relates to that which is within one's inner state, because the inner state is the foundation. The outer state is subsidiary to the inner state. Therefore, the outer actions are referred to as Islaam because they denote submission and humbleness before Him, Glorified be He. Islaam is: to yield to Allaah in submission and compliance with His Command. Hence, Allaah has referred to the outward affairs as Islaam due to that which they contain from yielding to Allaah and humility before Him and obedience to His Commands and stopping at His set limits, Mighty and Majestic be He.

It is said: "So and so submitted to so and so," meaning, he humbled himself before him and yielded to him. The meaning of "I have submitted to Allaah" is "I have humbled myself before Him and yielded to His Command in humility before Him, Glorified and Exalted be He."

Therefore, Islaam is: to submit to Allaah by way of outward actions. Eemaan is affirmation of the inner and outer affairs from that which has come within the pure Legislation. All of this is connected. Due to this, when He mentioned them together within this authentic Hadeeth, the Messenger of Allaah () explained Islaam as being the outward acts (i.e., the two testimonies, the prayer, the Zakat, fasting, and the Hajj). (He explained) Eemaan as being the inward affairs such as Eemaan in Allaah, the Angels, etc.

In this regard, there is that which has come within the authentic Hadeeth wherein it was said:

"O Messenger of Allaah, which action is best?" He said:

"That you feed others and that you give the greetings of peace to those whom you know as well as those whom you do not." 1

Within another Hadeeth he was asked:

"Whose Islaam is the best?" He said:

"He whom the Muslims are safe from his tongue and his hand." 2

¹ Reported by Al-Bukhaaree within the Book of Eemaan, from the Hadeeth of 'Abdullaah ibn 'Amr, may Allaah be pleased with him.

² Reported by Al-Bukhaaree within the Book of Eemaan, from the Hadeeth of Aboo Moosaa, may Allaah be pleased with him.

14 | MENTION OF THE FUNDAMENTALS WITHIN THE QUR'AAN AND SUNNAH

Therefore, Islaam is more specific as it relates to the outward actions which display yielding to the Command of Allaah and obedience to Him as well as compliance with His Legislation and ruling by it in all affairs. Eemaan is more specific as it relates to the inner matters which are connected to the heart, from believing in Allaah, His Angels, His Books, His Messengers, the Last day, and the decree; its good and its evil. Due to this, when he (was asked about Eemaan, he said:

"It is that you believe in Allaah, His Angels, His Books, His Messengers, the Last day, and the Divine Decree; its good and its evil."

So he explained Eemaan by way of these six matters which are the fundamentals of Eemaan and they are themselves, the foundations of the entire religion. For there is no Eemaan for the one who has no Islaam and there is no Islaam for the one who has no Eemaan. Hence, Eemaan in these fundamentals is a must for the soundness of one's Islaam. However, it could either be complete or deficient. Due to this,

Allaah, the Mighty and Majestic, has regarding the Bedouins:

"Say, "You have not [yet] believed; but say [instead], 'We have submitted.'"

[Soorah Al-Hujurat 49:14]

Since their Eemaan was not complete, rather, they are deficient in Eemaan, they did not have perfection in the obligations of Eemaan. Eemaan was negated from them; meaning, the perfection (of Eemaan) was negated from them) because it is negated from he who abandons some of the obligations. As is within the statement of the Prophet (سَالِينَ) wherein he said:

"There is no Eemaan for the one who has no patience." 3

Also, there is his (مَالْمُعَلَّمُ) statement:

³ Reported within the Muwatta' of Imaam Maalik from the Hadeeth of Anas ibn Maalik, may Allaah be pleased with him.

16 | MENTION OF THE FUNDAMENTALS WITHIN THE QUR'AAN AND SUNNAH

لَا يُؤْمِنُ أَحَدُكُمْ حَتَّى يُحِبُّ لِأَخِيهِ مَا يُحِبُّ لِأَخِيهِ مَا يُحِبُّ لِنَفْسِهِ

"None of you truly believes until he loves for his brother that which he loves for himself." 4

From that is his (حَيَّالُسُهُمُ statement:

مَنْ كَانَ يُؤْمِنُ بِاللهِ وَ الْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ ، فَلْيَقُلْ خَيْرًا أَوْ لِيَصْمُتْ ، وَ مَنْ كَانَ يُؤْمِنُ بِاللهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ ، فَلْيُكْرِمْ جَارَهُ ، وَ مَنْ كَانَ يُؤْمِنُ بِاللهِ وَ الْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ فَلْيُكْرِمْ جَارَهُ ، وَ مَنْ كَانَ يُؤْمِنُ بِاللهِ وَ الْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ فَلْيُكْرِمْ ضَيْفَهُ

"Whoever believes in Allaah and the Last day then let him speak good or remain silent. Whoever believes in Allaah and the Last day then let him honor his neighbor. Whoever believes in Allaah and the Last day then let him honor his guest." 5

The point is that Eemaan necessitates outward action. Just as Islaam without Eemaan is from the action of the hypocrites, similarly, the complete Eemaan which is required necessitates acting upon that which Allaah and Messenger have commanded and abandoning that which Allaah and His Messenger have prohibited. If he falls short in that then it is permissible to negate that Eemaan from him due to his falling short, in the manner which Eemaan was negated from the Bedouins within the statement of Allaah:

"Say, 'You have not [yet] believed; but say [instead], 'We have submitted.'"

[Soorah Al-Hujurat 49:14]

Also, in the manner in which it was negated from those mentioned in the preceding Ahadeeth.

In summary, Allaah, the Glorified and High, and His Messenger negated Eemaan from some of ⁵ Agreed upon. Reported by Al-Bukhaaree and Muslim within their Saheehs from the Hadeeth of Aboo Hurayrah, may Allaah be pleased with him.

those who abandon some of the requirements whilst affirming Islaam for them. Hence, these six fundamentals are the foundations of the entire religion. So, he who brings them along with the outward actions then he becomes a Muslim and a believer. He who does not bring them then he does not have Eemaan nor Islaam, such as the hypocrites. For they outwardly displayed Islaam and claimed Eemaan; they prayed with the people, performed Hajj with the people, fought in Jihaad with the people, etc. However, on the inside, they were not with the Muslims. Rather, they were Muslims from one perspective and they were not Muslims from another perspective. This is because they belied Allaah and His Messenger. They inwardly rejected that which the Messengers came with while outwardly displaying Islaam for their quick passing share (of the Dunyaa) and for wellknown objectives. Allaah referred to them as liars in that and they were considered as deviant disbelievers. Rather, they were considered to be of greater disbelieve and evil than those who outwardly displayed their disbelief. Due to this, they will be in the lowest depth of the Fire. This is only because their danger is greater. This is because the Muslim thinks that they are his brothers and that they are upon his religion. Perhaps he discloses some secrets to him and they harm the Muslims and betray them. Therefore, their disbelief is worse and their harm is greater.

Similarly, those who claim to believe in these fundamentals yet they do not perform the outward legislated acts of Islaam-so they do not testify that none has the right to be worshipped except Allaah and Muhammad is the Messenger of Allaah; they do not pray; they do not fast, or pay Zakat, or perform Hajj; or they abandon other than that from the outward legislations of Islaam which Allaah has made obligatory upon them—then this is an evidence for the absence of Eemaan or the weakness of Eemaan. Perhaps Eemaan is negated in totality—as it would be negated in totality if one abandons the two testimonies—and this is by way of consensus. Perhaps its basis is not negated; however, its completion and perfection is negated due to not performing that specific obligation—such fasting and Hajj while having the ability to perform it, or Zakat, and the likes of that from the affairs according to the majority of the people of knowledge. For abandonment of them is wickedness and misguidance. However, they do not constitute apostasy from according to the majority of the scholars if one does not reject their obligation.

20 MENTION OF THE FUNDAMENTALS WITHIN THE QUR'AAN AND SUNNAH

As for the prayer, some take the position that abandonment of it is apostasy, even if one believes in its obligation. This is the more correct between the two statements of the scholars due to many evidences. From them is the statement of the Prophet:

"The covenant that is between us and them is the prayer. He who abandons it has disbelieved." ⁶

Imaam Ahmad reported it as did the people of the Sunan with a Saheeh chain of narration from the Hadeeth of Buraydah ibn Al-Haseeb, may Allaah be pleased with him.

Others said that abandonment of it is disbelief which is less than (major) disbelief if one does not reject its obligation. This matter has be specifically researched and given special consideration from the people of knowledge. The point is, however, to draw attention to the fact that there is no Islaam for the one who has no

⁶ Reported by An-Nasaa'ee and others from the Hadeeth of Buraydah, may Allaah be pleased with him. Al-Albaanee graded it Saheeh within Saheeh Al-Jaami' (no. 4143).

Eemaan and there is no Eemaan for the one who has no Islaam. One is an indication of the other.

It has been previously mentioned that Islaam is called Islaam because it denotes compliance and humbleness before Allaah, the Mighty Majestic, as well as submission His Magnificence, Glorified and Exalted be He. This is because it is connected to the outward matters.

Eemaan is named so because it is connected to the inner affairs; and Allaah, the Majestic and High, knows them. Hence, it is called Eemaan because it is connected to the truthful heart. There are, for this truthful heart, outward affairs as an indication of one's sincerity and the soundness of its faith. If the true Muslim displays them, is upright upon them, and performs them then this is proof for soundness of his Eemaan. He who is not upright, that is an indication of the lack of Eemaan or weakness in his Eemaan. Eemaan in its general sense-Islaam enters into it, and vice-versa. This is according to Ahlus-Sunnah wal-Jamaa'ah. As Allaah, the Mighty Majestic, has said:

"Truly, the religion with Allaah Islaam."

[Soorah Aali Imran 3:19]

Eemaan enters into it, according to Ahlus-Sunnah wal-Jamaa'ah; for there is no Islaam except with Eemaan. So the religion with Allaah is Islaam; it is Eemaan; it is guidance, Tagwaa, and righteousness. These titles, although their wordings differ, they all go back to the same meaning, and that is Eemaan in Allaah and His Messengers and being guided by Allaah, and uprightness upon the religion of Allaah. It is all called righteousness, Eemaan, Islaam, Tagwaa, and guidance. Similarly, if the term Al-Ihsaan is used generally then the two affairs-Islaam and Eemaan-enter into it, because it specifically denotes perfection of some of the slaves of Allaah. So if it is general then the first two matters—Islaam and Eemaan—enter into it. When one of the three is used generally then the other two enter into it.

So if it is said: the Muhsinoon (those who have Ihsaan) then they are the most specific of the slaves of Allaah; for there is no Ihsaan except with Islaam and Eemaan. Allaah, the Exalted, has mentioned:

﴿ وَأَحْسِنُوآ أَ إِنَّ ٱللَّهَ يُجِبُّ ٱلْمُحْسِنِينَ ﴿ ١٥٠ ﴾

"And do good. Truly, Allaah loves Al-Muhsinoon (the good-doers)."

[Soorah Al-Bagarah 2:195]

Allaah, Glorified be He, also said:

"Truly, Allaah is with those who fear Him (keep their duty unto Him), and those who are Muhsinoon."

[Soorah An-Nahl 16:128]

Therefore, the Muhsin is only a Muhsin by way of his Islaam, his Eemaan, his Tagwaa of Allaah, and his establishing the command of Allaah. By way of this, he is called a Muhsin. It is not conceivable that he could be called a Muhsin without Islaam and Eemaan.

Similarly, my brother, as it relates to the term Mu'minoon (Believers) then Muslimoon (i.e., Muslims) enters into it. This is because they (i.e., the term believers) are more specific than the term Muslims. Allaah, the Exalted, has said:

24 | MENTION OF THE FUNDAMENTALS WITHIN THE QUR'AAN AND SUNNAH

"Verily, Allaah is with the believers."

[Soorah Al-Anfal 8:19]

Allaah, the Mighty and Majestic, has said:

"Allaah has promised to the believers men and women, - Gardens under which rivers flow."

[Soorah At-Tawbah 9:72]

Hence, the believer is called a believer due to his belief within his heart and his submission (Islaam) with his limbs to Allaah Alone. So the believers are believers because of their belief, their Islaam, and their establishing the command of Allaah and stopping at His set limits.

From that which indicates this matter is the Hadeeth of Sa'd ibn Aboo Waqqaas, may Allaah be pleased with him, wherein he asked the Prophet (why did he give to a people and leave another people (without giving them). Sa'd said: "O Messenger of Allaah, you gave to so and so and such and such while you left so and so; and verily I see him to be a believer." The Prophet (ﷺ) said:

أَوْ مُسْلَماً

"Or (perhaps) a Muslim."

So Sa'd repeated his statement and the Prophet (حَبِلُواللهُ يَعَلِينُ said:

Or (perhaps) a Muslim.7

The point is that Islaam and Eemaan, when mentioned together, have two meanings; a meaning which is more general and a meaning which is more specific. So the Muslim is more general than the believer and the believer is more specific than the Muslim. Every Mu'min is a Muslim but not every Muslim is a Mu'min. However, in general, one enters into the other, as has been previously clarified.

From that which proves that, as well, is the statement of the Prophet (إِنَّهُ الْمِثَانِينَ):

⁷ Agreed upon. Al-Bukhaaree reported it within the Saheeh, as did Muslim on the authority of Sa'd ibn Maalik.

الْإِيمَانُ بِضْعٌ وَ سَبْعُونَ شُعْبَةً ، أَوْ بِضْعٌ وَ سِتُّونَ شُعْبَةً، أَفْضَلُهَا لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللهُ، وَ أَدْنَاهَا إِمَاطَةُ الْأَذَى عَن الطَّرِيقِ، وَ الْحَيَاءُ شُعْبَةٌ مِنَ الإيمانِ.

"Eemaan is seventy odd branches (or he said: sixty odd branches); the best of them is the statement: "None has the right to be worshipped except Allaah," the lowest of them is to remove something harmful from the path, and modesty is a branch of Eemaan." 8

This Hadeeth proves that Islaam enters into the general scope of Eemaan as do guidance, Al-Ihsaan, Tagwaa, and righteousness. Eemaan, which its highest part is the statement: None has the right to be worshipped except Allaah, and its lowest part is to remove something harmful from the path, is our entire religion; it is Islaam and it is Eemaan. Due to this, he said:

أَفْضَلُها لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللهُ

"The best of them is the statement: "None has the right to be worshipped except Allaah."

It is known that the statement: None has the right to be worshipped except Allaah, is the first pillar of Islaam along with the testimony that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allaah. So, this is considered to be the highest quality of Eemaan.

By way of this, it is known that in general, Islaam along with its pillars and actions, enter into Eemaan. Similarly, in general, Eemaan in Allaah by itself, or Eemaan in Allaah and His Messenger, all of that which Allaah and His Messenger have legislated enters into it; from the prayer, Zakat, fasting, Hajj, Eemaan in the Angels, the Books, the Prophets, the Last day, and the Decree; its good and its evil. This is because all of this enters into the term: Eemaan in Allaah. For Eemaan in Allaah comprises Eemaan in His Names and Attributes and His Existence, and that He is the Lord of all that exists and that He deserves to be worshipped. Similarly, it comprises Eemaan in all of that which Allaah has informed with and legislated for His slaves. It also comprises Eemaan in all the Messengers, the Angels, the Books, the Prophets, and all of that which Allaah and His Messenger informed with.

Also, there is that which has come within the Sunnah in this regard, such as his (statement:

"Say: I believe in Allaah, and then be upright." 9

What enters into it is all of that which Allaah and His Messenger have informed with and all that which He has legislated for His slaves. In this regard, there is the statement of the Most High:

"Verily, those who say: "Our Lord is Allaah (Alone)," and then they are upright."

[Soorah Fussilat 41:30]

⁹ Reported by Muslim within his Saheeh from the Hadeeth of Sufyaan ibn 'Abdullaah Ath-Thaqafee.

Meaning, they say: "Our God, our Creator, our Provider is Allaah;" and they believe in Him with a belief that entails uprightness upon that which has come within the Book of Allaah and the Sunnah of His Messenger (چَالْشَهَاتِيَّةُ). From the Sunnah of Allaah within the Noble Our'aan is that He mentions the reports and the stories at length within some places and he summarizes them in others in order that the believer and the student of knowledge may know these matters from the Book of Allaah, the Glorified, in general and in detail so that after this he would not misconstrue the places of summarization with the places of in depth speech and clarification; for this has its place as does that.

This is how Eemaan is applied in some places. In others, other things which are a part of it and from its branches are mentioned connection with it as a notification that this is from the most important characteristics and the greatest of them. As Allaah, the Mighty and Majestic, has mentioned:

"Truly those who believe, and do deeds of righteousness, and establish As-Salât, and give Zakat, they will have their reward with their Lord."

[Soorah Al-Bagarah 2:277]

statement: "...and establish As-Salât His (Iqâmat-as-Salât), and give Zakat," is from the general body of Eemaan and righteous action. But He mentioned them here to draw attention to the greatness of their status. Similarly, there is His statement:

"Therefore, believe in Allaah and His Messenger (Muhammad 如道), and in the Light (this Our'aan) which We have sent down."

[Soorah At-Taghabun 64:8]

The Light which was sent down is from the general body of Eemaan in Allaah and His Messenger and it enters into it in the general sense. However, Allaah drew attention to it due to the greatness of its status. Also, there is His statement:

"By Al-'Asr (the time). Verily! Man is in loss, Except those who believe and do righteous good deeds, and recommend one another to the truth and recommend one another to patience."

[Soorah Al-'Asr 103:1-3]

Mutually recommending to the truth mutually recommending to patience are both from the general righteous actions and righteous actions are from the general body of Eemaan. So the action is mentioned in connection with Eemaan as a means of connecting that which is specific to that which is general. Similarly, connecting mutually recommending the truth and mutually recommending to patience to that which is before it is from connecting that which is specific to that which is general. This is because mutually recommending the truth and mutually recommending to patience are from the general body of righteous actions. Due to this, they were not mentioned in the other verses. Allaah, the Majestic and High, said:

those who believe and "Verily. righteous good deeds, for them Gardens of delight (Paradise)."

[Soorah Lugman 31:8]

He did not mention mutually recommending to the truth and mutually recommending to patience because they enter into the (righteous) action that is in His statement: "...and do righteous good deeds." Similarly, they enter into Eemaan in its general sense. This is because, in general, all that which Allaah and His Messenger have informed with, regarding that which was and that which will be, at the end of time and on the Day of Standing, in Paradise, and the Fire, (all) enter into it as do all of that which Allaah and His Messenger have commanded. Also, abandonment of that which Allaah and His Messenger have prohibited enters into it, and all of that enters into Eemaan in the general sense. Allaah, the Glorified, mentioned some of the actions, in connection with it, and the abandonment of the evil actions in connection with it from the perspective of mentioning the specific in connection to the general.

In a like manner, that which is connected to the fundamentals of Eemaan is that at times these six fundamentals are mentioned together—as is within the Noble Verse:

"It is not Al-Birr (piety, righteousness) that vou turn your faces towards east and (or) west (in prayers); but Al-Birr is (the quality of) the one who believes in Allaah, the Last Day, the Angels, the Book, the Prophets."

[Soorah Al-Bagarah 2:177]

He mentioned five within it; and He mentioned the Decree in another verse; as is within His statement:

"Verily, We have created all things with Qadar (Divine Preordainments of all things)."

[Soorah Al-Qamar 54:49]

Also, within His statement, Glorified and Exalted be He:

34 | MENTION OF THE FUNDAMENTALS WITHIN THE QUR'AAN AND SUNNAH

"No calamity befalls on the earth or in yourselves but is inscribed in the Book of Decrees before We bring it into existence. Verily, that is easy for Allaah."

[Soorah Al-Hadid 57:22]

There are others besides these verses. He mentioned some of them in other verses and did not mention all of them.

Also, within the Hadeeth, he mentioned some of the fundamentals and he mentioned six within the Hadeeth of Jibreel. In some Ahadeeth, he only mentioned Eemaan. Such as his statement:

"Say: I believe in Allaah, and then be upright."

In some, he mentioned Eemaan in Allaah and the Last Day. This was only due to the fact that Eemaan, all of that which Allaah and His Messenger have commanded with, enter into Eemaan in Allaah and the Last Day. So the believer in Allaah and the Last Day is compelled by his Eemaan in this to enact all that which Allaah and His Messenger have commanded. Also, it compels him to abandon that which Allaah and His Messenger have prohibited. Due to this, he sufficed with mentioning Eemaan in Allaah and the Last day in some texts; because he who believes in Allaah and the Last Day, with correct Eemaan, then that will compel him to perform that which Allaah has made obligatory upon him and to abandon that which Allaah has prohibited him from; and to stop at the set limits of Allaah, the Glorified and High. From this is statement of Allaah, the Mighty and Majestic:

﴿ إِنَّ ٱلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَٱلَّذِينَ هَادُوا وَالنَّصَدَىٰ وَٱلصَّدِعِينَ مَنْ ءَامَنَ بِٱللَّهِ وَٱلْيَوْمِ ٱلْآخِرِ وَعَمِلَ صَلِحًا فَلَهُمْ أَجُرُهُمْ عِندَ رَبِّهِمْ وَلَا خَوْفٌ عَلَيْهِمْ وَلَا هُمْ يَخْزَنُونَ اللهُ ﴾

"Verily! Those who believe and those and Christians, and are Jews Sabians, whoever believes in Allaah and the Last Day and do righteous good deeds shall have their reward with their Lord, on them shall be no fear, nor shall they grieve."

[Soorah Al-Bagarah 2:62]

Hence, Eemaan in that which has been mentioned is a must. He who does not believe in that then he is a disbeliever in Allaah, the Mighty and Majestic, even if he outwardly displays Islaam and Eemaan. However, by way of his disbelief in one of the six fundamentals or his disbelief in anything else which is known to necessarily be from the religion of Allaah, by way of well-known evidences, then he is a disbeliever in Allaah and that which he (outwardly) affirms beyond that will not benefit him. For as it relates to this religion, it is a must that one accept all of it and it is a must that one have Eemaan in all of it. So if one believes in part of it and disbelieves in part then he is—in reality—a disbeliever. As Allaah, the Exalted, has said:

﴿ إِنَّ ٱلَّذِينَ يَكُفُرُونَ بِٱللَّهِ وَرُسُلِهِ ، وَيُرِيدُونَ أَن يُفَرِّقُوا بَيْنَ ٱللَّهِ وَرُسُلِهِ. وَيَقُولُونَ ثُوِّمِنُ بِبَعْضٍ وَنَكَفُّرُ بِبَعْضٍ وَيُرِيدُونَ أَن يَتَّخِذُواْ بَيِّنَ ذَلِكَ سَبِيلًا ۞ أُوْلَتِكَ هُمُ ٱلْكَفِرُونَ حَقَّا ۚ وَأَعْتَدُنَا لِلْكَفِرِينَ عَذَابًا شُهِينًا اللَّهُ ﴾

"Verily, those who disbelieve in Allaah and His Messengers and wish to make distinction between Allaah and Messengers (by believing in Allaah and disbelieving in His Messengers) saving, "We believe in some but reject others," and wish to adopt a way in between. They are in truth disbelievers. And We have prepared for the disbelievers a humiliating torment."

[Soorah An-Nisaa 4:150-151]

By way of this, the believer knows the greatness of the status of these fundamentals and that they are magnificent fundaments which must be adhered to. So Eemaan in that which Allaah has informed with regarding Himself, from His Names and Qualities, or that which His Messenger (اَ الْمِهُ الْمُؤْمُّلُونِ) informed with regarding Him from the Names and Oualities of Allaah, all enter into Eemaan in Allaah.

EEMAAN IN ALLAAH

What enters into that is belief that He is the Lord of all that exists; that He is the Creator, the Provider: that He is Perfect in His Essence and His Names, Qualities, and Actions. What enters into that is that He, Glorified and Exalted be He, sent Messengers and revealed Books; and that He measured everything and knew them before their existence, Glorified and Exalted be He; that He is Able to do all things and that He knows all things. From the most comprehensive of that which has come within the Mighty Book in this regard is His statement:

"Say (O Muhammad المَالِيَةِ): "He is Allaah, (the) One. Allaah-us-Samad (The Self-Sufficient all Master. Whom creatures need). He begets not, nor was He begotten; and there is none co-equal or comparable unto Him."

[Soorah Al-Ikhlas 112:1-4]

Likewise, His statement:

"There is nothing like unto Him, and He is the All-Hearer, the All-Seer."

[Soorah Ash-Shura 42:11]

Also His statement:

"So put not forward similitudes for Allaah (as there is nothing similar to Him, nor He resembles anything). Truly! Allaah knows and you know not."

[Soorah An-Nahl 16:74]

And His statement:

"Do you know of any who is similar to Him?"

[Soorah Maryam 19:65]

There are other such verses which resemble these indicating His Perfection, Glorified and Exalted be He, and that He is described with

40 | EEMAAN IN ALLAAH

Qualities of Perfection and absolved from all qualities of deficiency and defects. So, He is as He has informed about Himself and as the Messenger Muhammad () (has informed); that He has Beautiful Names and Lofty Qualities.

So it is obligatory upon the believer to believe in all of that which Allaah and His Messenger have informed with from the Names and Qualities of Allaah, and accept them as they have come; and not to alter them or replace them, or increase them or decrease them. Rather, he accepts them as they have come without:

- 🌣 عریف Tahreef: distorting their meanings
- ♦ تعطیل Ta'teel: negating them
- * تكييف Takyeef: seeking the exact nature of them.
- * تثيل Tamtheel: anthropomorphism (i.e., likening them to the qualities of the created beings)

Rather, he affirms them as the pious predecessors affirmed them.

From that is Al-Istiwaa' (Rising), Descending, His Face, His Hand, Mercy, Knowledge, Anger, Wanting (Iraadah), and other than that. All of them are Qualities of Allaah, the Mighty and Majestic. They are affirmed for Him as they have come within the Mighty Book and as they have come within the authentic Sunnah. We affirm them for Him just as the pious predecessors from Ahlus-Sunnah wal-Jamaa'ah, and as the Messengers, upon them be prayers and peace, affirmed. So we say He rose above the Throne in a manner of Rising that befits His Majesty and Greatness. It is not, as the Jahmiyah say, that He conquered it. For He is not in a position of one that is conquered such that anyone would conquer Him, since He is the Conqueror of everything, Mighty and Majestic be He, and He Controls (all things). However, Al-Istiwaa' is a Quality specific to the Throne. Its meaning is that of Highness and Loftiness. He is High above His creation; Lofty above His Throne, having risen above It in a manner that befits Him and He does not resemble His creation in anything from His Qualities, Majestic and High be He. Hence, His Istiwaa' is an affair which is known, as Maalik, may Allaah have mercy upon him, has said:

الْإِسْتِوَاءُ مَعْلُومٌ وَ الْكَيْفُ مَجْهُولٌ ، وَ الْإِيمَانُ بهِ وَاجِبٌ وَ السُّؤَالُ عَنْهُ بِدْعَةٌ "Al-Istiwaa' is known. The exact nature of it is unknown. Eemaan in it is an obligation and to question it is an innovation." ¹⁰

It was also mentioned by Rabee'ah, the Shavkh of Imaam Maalik, may Allaah have mercy upon him, as did Umm Salamah, may Allaah be pleased with her, and as is stated by Ahlus-Sunnah wal-Jamaa'ah. So the Qualities are known, but their exact nature is unknown. To have Eemaan in them is an obligation. This is the manner (of understanding) all of the Qualities (of Allaah): Knowledge, Mercy, Anger, the Face, the Hand, the Foot, the Fingers, and other than that from that which has come within the verses and the authentic Sunnah. Their manner (of understanding) is the same. Similarly, the Hadeeth of the Descending;¹¹ we

¹¹ Translator's Note-the text of the Hadeeth is as follows:

ينزل ربنا كل ليلة إلى سماء الدنيا حين يبقى ثلث الليل ، فيقول : من يدعوني فأستجيب له ؟ من يسألني فأعطيه ؟ من يستغفرني فأغفر له ؟

[&]quot;Our Lord descends every night when there remains one third of the night and says: 'Is there any who supplicates to Me so that I may accept his supplication? Is there any who asks of me so that I may give him? Is there any who seeks My forgiveness so that I may forgive him?"

believe in it and affirm its meaning for Allaah in the manner that befits Him. None knows its exact nature except Him. We say: Allaah descends, without saying: How? It is as He wills, Glorified and Exalted be He. It is a descending that befits His Majesty and Greatness. It does not negate His Highness and His Loftiness (above His creation), Glorified and Exalted be He; nor is it similar the descending of the creation.

Likewise, His Rising above the Throne does not negate His Knowledge of all things and Full-Encompassment of them and the fact that He is with His slaves and with the people of obedience from His slaves by way of His Knowledge and Watching over them, Glorified and Exalted be He. As Allaah has said:

"And He is with you (by His Knowledge) where so ever you may be."

[Soorah Al-Hadid 57:4]

Agreed upon. Al-Bukhaaree reported it within his Saheeh (no.1083) and Muslim reported it within his Saheeh (no. 5873) from the Hadeeth of Aboo Hurayrah, may Allaah be pleased with him.

44 | EEMAAN IN ALLAAH

This does not negate His Highness and His Rising above His Throne. For He is with us by His Knowledge and Watching (over us) while being above His Throne, Glorified and Exalted be He; as He wills and as He has informed; without Tahreef or Takyeef; and He is with His friends and the people of obedience by way of His Knowledge and Assistance as well; and His care for them, and His Proximity to them and Aiding them. So, they are of two types of "withness." A withness that is general that necessitates knowledge and full-encompassment as well as seeing His slaves; and that nothing is hidden from Him; and a withness that is specific; Him being with His Prophets and the people of obedience. As is within His statement, Glorified be He:

"I am with you both, hearing and seeing."

[Soorah Ta-Ha 20:46]

And His statement:

"Be not sad (or afraid), surely Allaah is with us."

[Soorah At-Tawbah 9:40]

And His statement:

"And be patient. Surely, Allaah is with those who are patient."

[Soorah Al-Anfal 8:46]

And other verses of similar import; and it is a withness that is specific necessitating Him safeguarding them, being there for them, supporting them, and granting them success along with Knowledge and watching over them; as Allaah said:

"And He is with you (by His Knowledge) where so ever you may be."

[Soorah Al-Hadid 57:4]

It is not as the Jahmiyah, the Mu'tazilah, and those similar to them say: that He is incarnate within every place; greatly Exalted be Allaah above their statement! Allaah, the Glorified and High, is above His creation and His Throne, as He has informed. His Knowledge is within everything (i.e., He knows everything), and He is not mixed-up with His creation, Glorified and Exalted be He.

Ahlus-Sunnah wal-Jamaa'ah include amongst Eemaan in Allaah Eemaan in all that which Allaah and His Messenger have informed with; also, Eemaan in all of His Names and Qualities. All of that, according to them, enters into Eemaan in Allaah in the absolute sense. So they believe in Him, Glorified be He, as being the Lord and true object of worship. They also believe that He is perfect in His Essence and His Names, Qualities and Actions. He creates, provides, gives, withholds, lowers, raises, and other than that from the Qualities of perfection. He is the true object of worship and He is the Creator, the All-Knowing; He is the Provider for His slaves; and He is Able to do all things.

None of these Qualities resemble the qualities of His creation. Rather, His Qualities befit Him, Mighty and Majestic be He, and our qualities befit us. His Qualities have perpetuity, endlessness, and perfection while the qualities of the slave have deficiency and impairment. All of this enters into Eemaan in Allaah, the Mighty and Majestic.

EEMAAN IN THE ANGELS

What enters into Eemaan in the Angels is:

- ❖ General Eemaan
- ❖ Detailed Eemaan

The Angels are of two categories. There is a category that we know, because they have been mentioned by name to us. So we believe in them (specifically) by their names. Such as Jibreel, Meekaa'eel, Israafeel, the angel of death, and their likes from the Angels. The rest, we believe that Allaah has Angels, as He has informed about them, Glorified and Exalted be He. As is within His statement:

"They are but honored slaves; they speak not until He has spoken, and they act on His Command."

[Soorah Al-Anbiyā 21:26-27]

We believe that they are of categories. From them, there is he who is entrusted to us, to preserve our actions and record them. From them, there are those who are entrusted with patrolling the earth attending gatherings of Dhikr and listening to them. From them, there are those who alternate shifts over us, by night and by day. From them, there are the carriers of the Throne, and others. There has come within the authentic Hadeeth that every day 70,000 Angels enter Bayt Al-Ma'moor which is within the seventh heaven, and the last group to exit will never return to it.12 This indicates their large number and that they are arrayed armies which none can enumerate them except Allaah, the Mighty and Majestic. We believe in them in general and in detail and (we believe) that they are noble servants. They are not humans and they are not Jinn. However, they are another creation which was created from light. As is within the authentic Hadeeth:

¹² This is derived from the long Hadeeth of Al-Israa' wal-Mi'raaj; part of which reads:

هَذَا الْبَيْتُ الْمُعْمُورُ يُصَلِّي فِيهِ كُلَّ يَوْم سَبْعُونَ أَلْفَ مَلَكٍ، إِذَا خَرَجُوا لَمْ يَعُودُوا إِلَيْهِ آخِرَ مَا عَلَيْهِمْ

[&]quot;This is Bayt Al-Ma'moor. Every day 70,000 Angels pray within it, and when they depart they never return to it (and a new group comes daily)."

Reported by Al-Bukhaaree within the Book of Beginning of Creation (no. 18) from the Hadeeth of Maalik ibn Sa'sa'ah, may Allaah be pleased with him.

"Angels were created from light, the Jinn were created from a smokeless flame of fire. and Adam was created from that which has been described to you (i.e., sounding clay)." 13

They take on different forms, as Allaah wills, and they have duties. They have qualities that befit them. Some of them we know about from the Sunnah, such as Jibreel, sometimes coming in the form of so and so (human) and at times coming in the form of such and such, and at other times, coming in the form in which Allaah created him having 600 wings. At times, he would come in the image of an unknown man, such as when he came and asked about Islaam. Eemaan, and Al-Ihsaan, etc.

The point is that they take on different forms as Allaah, the Mighty and Majestic, wills and wants. They have a make-up that Allaah knows. They have wings, as Allaah informed within His ¹³ Reported by Muslim in the Book of Zuhd and heart Softening Narrations (no. 78) from the Hadeeth of 'Aa'ishah, may Allaah be pleased with her.

50 | EEMAAN IN THE ANGELS

Magnificent Book in Soorah Faatir, ¹⁴ and other than that from that which Allaah has informed with within the Book and the Sunnah. We believe in that which has come within the Book and the Sunnah in detail and we believe in them in an absolute and general sense; (believing) in that which we do not know about from their state and their qualities.

¹⁴ It is the statement of Allaah:

[﴿] اَلْمَمْدُ بِلَّهِ فَاطِرِ اَلسَّمَنَوَتِ وَٱلْأَرْضِ جَاعِلِ اَلْمَلَتَنِكَةِ رُسُلًا أُوْلِيَّ اَجْنِحَةِ مَنْنَى وَثُلَثَ وَرُبَّعَ يَزِيدُ فِى اَلْحَالَقِ مَا يَشَاءَ أِنَّ اللّهَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ فَلَيرِّرُ ۞ ﴾

[&]quot;All the praises and thanks be to Allaah, the (only) Originator [or the (only) Creator] of the heavens and the earth, Who made the Angels Messengers with wings, - two or three or four. He increases in creation what He wills. Verily, Allaah is Able to do all things." [Soorah Fatir 35:1]

EEMAAN IN THE BOOKS

Similarly, is the issue of the Books, the matter is the same. The believer believes in the Books of Allaah in general and that Allaah has Books which He sent down to His Messengers and Prophets. We cannot enumerate them. However, we believe in them in a general sense and we believe in that which is within them, in a general sense. As for their details and that which is within them, then we relegate this to Allaah, the Glorified and High. From them, there are those which have been named to us, such as the Tawrah, the Injeel, the Zaboor, and the scriptures of Ibraheem and Moosaa, as well as the Mighty Book, the Qur'aan. We believe in these Books which have been named for us. As for those which have not been named for us then we believe that Allaah has books that He sent down to His Messengers and Prophets. None knows their number except Allaah, the Majestic and High. None knows them except Him; (we cannot know them) except by way of the texts which are affirmed for us by way of the Messenger (ایکلینیکیکی) in clarification of some of them.

EEMAAN IN THE MESSENGERS

Similarly, there is (belief in) the Messengers, upon them be prayers and peace; (believing) in them in general and detail. We believe in them with a general Eemaan and in the fact that Allaah has Messengers which He sent to the people. Their most important task was their call to Allaah. As Allaah said:

"And verily, We have sent among every (community, Ummah nation) Messenger (proclaiming): "Worship Allaah (Alone), and avoid (or keep away from) Taaghoot."

[Soorah An-Nahl 16:36]

And He said:

"And We did not send any Messenger before you (O Muhammad) but We inspired him (saying): Laa Ilaha Illa Ana [none has the right to be worshipped but I (Allaah)], so worship Me (Alone and none else)."

[Soorah Al-Anbiyā 21:25]

So Allaah, the Glorified, has Messengers which He sent to His slaves as bearers of good news and warners. As for their number clarification of their names, this is relegated to Him, Glorified and Exalted be He. However, there has come within the Hadeeth of Aboo Dharr, which has supporting narrations from the Hadeeth of Aboo Umaamah and others, that which indicates that there were 319 or so Messengers.¹⁵ However, their chains of narration

وعن أبي ذر قال: قلت: يا رسول الله أي الأنبياء كان أول ؟ قال: " آدم ". قلت: يا رسول الله ونبي كان؟ قال: "نعم نبي مكلم". قلت: يا رسول الله كم المرسلون؟ قال: "ثلاثمائة وبضع عشر جما غفيرا "وفي رواية عن أبي أمامة قال أبو ذر : قلت يا رسول الله كم وفاء عدة الأنبياء ؟ قال: "مائة ألف وأربعة وعشرون ألفا الرسل من ذلك ثلاثمائة وخمسة عشر جما غفيرا

On the authority of Aboo Dharr, who said: "I said: 'O Messenger of Allaah, who was the first Prophet?' He said: 'Adam.' I said: 'O Messenger of Allaah, was he a Prophet?' He said: Yes, a Prophet to whom Allaah spoke.' I said: 'O Messenger of Allaah, how many Messengers were there?' He said: '319 or so; a large number." In the narration of

are not free from discussion (as to their authenticity).

As for the Prophets, there has come in one of the narrations that there were 124,000; all of them being Prophets. In another narration, there were 120,000. However, their chains of narration are in need of discussion, as has preceded. The point is, the Prophets and Messengers were many. However, knowledge of their definite number is relegated to Allaah, the Glorified and High. It is upon us to believe, with general Eemaan, that Allaah has Messengers and Prophets which he sent to clarify the truth and guide the people. As Allaah, the Mighty and Majestic, said:

"Never did We send a Messenger or a Prophet before you, but when he did recite the revelation or narrated or spoke, Shaytaan threw (some falsehood)

Aboo Umaamah, Aboo Dharr said: "I said: 'O Messenger of Allaah, what was the number of Prophets?' He said: '124,000. The Messengers from them were 315; a large number."

Reported within Mishkaat Al-Masaabeeh (no. 5737) Al-Albaanee graded it Saheeh.

in it. But Allaah abolishes that which Shavtaan throws Allaah in. Then establishes His Revelations, And Allaah is All-Knower, All-Wise."

[Soorah Al-Hajj 22:52]

Allaah also said:

"Muhammad (ا مَالْ الْمُعَلِّمُ) is not the father of any man among you, but he is the Messenger of Allaah and the last (end) of the Prophets."

[Soorah Al-Ahzab 33:40]

Allaah also said:

"Indeed, We have sent Our Messengers with clear proofs, and revealed with them the Scripture and the Balance (justice) that mankind may keep up justice."

[Soorah Al-Hadid 57:25]

So, Allaah has many Messengers and Prophets such that none can enumerate them except Allaah.

We believe in that in detail and in general. They were a large group. Their primary focus was great. And that is the call to the Oneness of Allaah and prohibiting the people associating partners with Allaah as well as clarifying the legislation of Allaah to them and commanding them with that which Allaah has commanded with and prohibiting them from that which Allaah has prohibited. This was their primary focus. We believe, in detail, in those who have been mentioned by name from amongst Nooh (Noah), Ibraheem them. such as: (Abraham), Moosaa (Moses), 'Eesaa (Jesus), Daawud (David), Sulaymaan (Solomon), Hud, Saalih, and other than them; Adam being from amongst them. For there has come, within some of the narrations from Aboo Dharr and others, that he was a Prophet to whom Allaah spoke. There has come within some of them that he was a Messenger. There is no doubt that he received revelation and that he was upon legislation from Allaah. The doubt is only in whether he was a Prophet/Messenger or just a Prophet. narrations vary in this regard. The point is that Adam is from the general body of the Prophets without doubt and he was upon legislation. The Hadeeth of the gathering of the people on the Day of Judgment and the believers going to Nooh saying to him: "You are the first of the Messengers sent to the people of the earth,"16 by

كنا مع النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم في دعوة فرفع إليه الذراع وكانت تعجبه فنهس منها نهسة ، وقال: أنا سيد القوم يوم القيامة هل تدرون بمن يجمع الله الأولين والآخرين في صعيد واحد فيبصرهم الناظر ويسمعهم الداعي وتدنو منهم الشمس ، فيقول : بعض الناس ألا ترون إلى ما أنتم فيه إلى ما بلغكم ألا تنظرون إلى من يشفع لكم إلى ربكم ، فيقول : بعض الناس أبوكم آدم فيأتونه ، فيقولون : يا آدم أنت أبو البشر خلقك الله بيده ونفخ فيك من روحه وأمر الملائكة فسجدوا لك وأسكنك الجنة ألا تشفع لنا إلى ربك ألا ترى ما نحن فيه وما بلغنا ، فيقول: ربى غضب غضبا لم يغضب قبله مثله ، ولا يغضب بعده مثله ونهاني عن الشجرة فعصيته نفسي نفسي اذهبوا إلى غيري اذهبوا إلى نوح فيأتون نوحا ، فيقولون : يا نوح أنت أول الرسل إلى أهل الأرض وسياك الله عبدا شكورا أما ترى إلى ما نحن فيه ألا ترى إلى ما بلغنا ألا تشفع لنا إلى ربك ، فيقول : ربي غضب اليوم غضبا لم يغضب قبله مثله ولا يغضب بعده مثله نفسي نفسي ائتوا النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم فيأتوني فأسجد تحت العرش، فيقال: يا محمد ارفع رأسك واشفع تشفع وسل تعطه

On the authority of Aboo Hurayrah, may Allaah be pleased with him, who said: "We were in the company of the Prophet (at a banquet and a cooked (mutton) forearm was set before him, and he used to like it. He ate a morsel of it and said, I will be the chief of all the people on the Day of Resurrection. Do you know how Allaah will gather all of the first and the last (people) in one level place where an observer will be able to see (all) of them and they will be able to hear the announcer, and the sun way of this, it is proved that Nooh was the first of the Messengers and that Adam was only a Prophet to whom Allaah spoke. If it were correct that he was a Messenger then this would mean that he was a Messenger to his offspring; as opposed to Nooh, for he was sent to his people; and they were the people of the earth at that time. As for Adam, he was sent to his offspring will come near to them?' Some People will say: 'Don't you see, in what condition you are and the state to which you have reached? Why don't you look for a person who can intercede for you with your Lord?' Some people will say: 'Appeal to your father, Adam.' They will go to him and say: 'O Adam! You are the father of all mankind, and Allaah created you with His Own Hands, and ordered the Angels to prostrate for you, and made you live in Paradise. Will you not intercede for us with your Lord? Don't you see in what (miserable) state we are, and to what condition we have reached?' On that, Adam will reply, 'My Lord is so angry as He has never been before and will never be in the future; (besides), He forbade me (to eat from) the tree, but I disobeyed (Him), (I am worried about) myself! Myself! Go to somebody else; go to Noah.' They will go to Noah and say; 'O Noah! You are the first amongst the Messengers of Allaah to the people of the earth, and Allaah named you a thankful slave. Don't you see in what a (miserable) state we are and to what condition we have reached? Will you not intercede for us with your Lord?' Noah will reply: Today my Lord has become so angry as he had never been before and will never be in the future. Myself! Myself! Go to the Prophet (وَلَوْلِيَالِكُونِ (Muhammad).' The people will come to me, and I will prostrate myself underneath Allaah's Throne. Then I will be addressed: 'O Muhammad! Raise your head; intercede, for your intercession will be accepted, and ask (for anything), for you will be given."

Reported by Al-Bukhaaree in his Saheeh, within the Book of Prophets (no. 15).

with a specific legislation before the occurrence of Shirk. Nooh was sent to his people who were all the people of the earth after the occurrence of Shirk. By way of this, there remains contradiction between Adam being Messenger-if the Hadeeth in that regard is authentic-and Nooh being the first Messenger sent to the people of the earth.

EEMAAN IN THE LAST DAY

Likewise, is the statement regarding the fifth foundation; which is Eemaan in the Last Day. We believe in it in general and in detail. When believe in that which Allaah has mentioned from the affairs of the Hereafter; such as Paradise, the Fire, the Bridge, the Scale, and other than it. That which is besides this from those things the details of which have not come within the verses and the authentic Ahadeeth, then we believe in it is a general way.

EEMAAN IN THE DECREE

Likewise, is belief in the Decree. It is the sixth fundamental. We believe in it as has come within the texts. Eemaan in it comprises four things, according to Ahlus-Sunnah. They are:

The First Matter is Knowledge: It is the fact that Allaah, the Glorified and High, knew all things and enumerated them; and that nothing is hidden from Him, Majestic and High be He. He knows everything. As Allaah has said:

"Verily, Allaah is the All-Knower of everything."

[Soorah At-Tawbah 9:115]

By way of this, the extremists Qadariyah and Mu'tazilah are refuted; those who deny this Knowledge. Ash-Shaafi'ee, may Allaah mercy upon him, said regarding "Investigate them regarding the Knowledge. If they affirm it then they are just quarrelsome and if they reject it then they have disbelieved." This is because our statement is that Allaah is the Knower of all things; this is the Qadar (Decree).

For nothing is hidden from Allaah. So, since Allaah knows (all) things, then it is impossible for something to occur in opposition to His Knowledge. This is because for them to occur in opposition to His Knowledge would denote ignorance. As for if they reject that and say that He does not know things until after their existence then this is disbelief and misguidance and denial of Allaah, the Glorified and High; as well as describing Him with ignorance. This is a great form of deficiency which necessitates the disbelief of the one who said it.

The Second Matter is Writing: It is the fact that Allaah wrote all things. As Allaah has said:

"No calamity befalls on the earth or in yourselves but is inscribed in the Book of Decrees (Al-Lauh Al-Mahfûz), before We bring it into existence. Verily, that is easy for Allaah."

[Soorah Al-Hadid 57:22]

Allaah also said:

"Know you not that Allaah knows all that is in heaven and on earth? Verily, it is (all) in the Book (Al-Lauh Al-Mahfûz). Verily! That is easy for Allaah."

[Soorah Al-Haji 22:70]

The point is that He wrote all things, Mighty and Majestic be He, as the two preceding verses prove and as does the statement of the Prophet (يَالْمُ الْمُعَلِّمُ within the Hadeeth of 'Abdullaah ibn 'Amr ibn Al-'Aas:

إِنَّ اللهَ كَتَبَ مَقَادِيرَ الْخَلَائِقِ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَخْلُقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَ الْأَرْضَ بِخَمْسِينَ أَلْفَ سَنَةً وَ كَانَ عَرْشُهُ عَلَى الْمَاءِ

"Allaah ordained the measures quality) of the creation fifty thousand years before He created the heavens and the earth, as His Throne was water." 17

¹⁷ Reported by Muslim within his Saheeh in the Book of Decree (no. 27).

The writing of things which Allaah has brought into existence or will bring into existence is a matter which is known. It has come within the texts of the Book of Allaah and the Sunnah of His Messenger (). So we must believe in it and believe that Allaah wrote all things, He knows them, and He has enumerated them. Nothing is hidden from Him and He knows all things and is Able to do all things. As He, the Mighty and Majestic, has said:

"That you may know that Allaah has power over all things, and that Allaah surrounds (comprehends) all things in (His) Knowledge."

[Soorah At-Talaq 65:12]

The Third Matter is The Authoritative Will: The fact that whatever Allaah Wills is and that which He does not Will is not; and there is nothing within His Dominion which is outside of His Will, Majestic and High be He. Rather, that which Allaah Wills is, even if the people do not will that; and that which Allaah does not Will, will not be, even if the people will that. It is a must that one has Eemaan in this Will; that that which Allaah wills is and that which he does not will is not.

"To whomsoever among you who wills to walk straight, And you will not, unless (it be) that Allaah wills, the Lord of the 'Alamîn (mankind, Jinn and all that exists)."

[Soorah At-Takwir 81:28-29]

Allaah also said:

"So whosoever will (let him read it), and receive admonition (from it)! And they will not receive admonition unless Allaah wills; He (Allaah) is the One, deserving that mankind should be afraid of, and should be dutiful to Him, and should not take any Ilah (God) along with Him, and He is the One Who forgives (sins)."

[Soorah Al-Muddaththir 74:55-56]

66 EEMAAN IN THE DECREE

The point is that Allaah, the Glorified, has a perfect Will which is authoritative.

"Verily, His Command, when He intends a thing, is only that He says to it, "Be!" and it is!"

[Soorah Ya-Sin 36:82]

The Fourth Matter is His Ability over all things, bringing them into existence, and creation: We believe that He, Glorified be He, is Able to do all things and that He is the Creator and the All-Knowing and He is the One who created and brought into existence all things that exist. Likewise, in the future, none shares with Him in (full control over) that. Rather, He is the Creator, the Provider, and He is Able to do all things and He knows all things; as He said:

"Allaah is the Creator of all things, and He is the Wakîl (Trustee, Disposer of affairs, Guardian, etc.) over all things."

[Soorah Az-Zumar 39:62]

Eemaan in the Decree comprises all of this. It comprises our belief in His Knowledge of all things and His Writing them; as well as our belief that that which Allaah wills is and that which he does not will is not; and our belief that He is the Creator of all things and He is the One who created them and brought them into existence, Glorified and Exalted be He. In this is a refutation against he who speaks in opposition to this from the Mu'tazilah and others. For he who rejects the Will of Allaah and says that there exists within His Dominion that which He does not want (to exist) then he is a belier of Allaah, the Mighty and Majestic, and one who belittles Him, Glorified and Exalted be He.

So, it is a must that one have Eemaan that He is Able to do all things and that what He wills is and that which He wants by way of His Universal Will is. However, for some of the people, these things which the Messengers came with are hidden from them. So it is obligatory for you to clarify them to them with the evidences and to make clear to them the difference between the Universal Will, the objective of which is not opposed; and it is that which is mentioned within the likes of His statement:

﴿ إِنَّمَآ أَمْرُهُۥ إِذَآ أَرَادَ شَيْعًا أَن يَقُولَ لَهُۥكُن فَيكُونُ ۗ ﴿ ﴾

"Verily, His Command, when He intends a thing, is only that He says to it, "Be!" and it is!"

[Soorah Ya-Sin 36:82]

And the Legislative Will, the objective of which could be opposed, as it relates to some of the people; and it is that which is mentioned within His statement:

"Allaah wishes to make clear (what is lawful and what is unlawful) to you, and to show you the ways of those before you, and accept your repentance, and Allaah is All-Knower, All-Wise."

[Soorah An-Nisaa 4:26]

It is known that some people die while being ignorant and die without repenting. Allaah, the Exalted said:

"Allaah wishes to lighten (the burden) for you."

[Soorah An-Nisaa 4:28]

This is the Legislative Will; for He has lightened the burden for some people and He has not lightened it for another people. The meaning of this is that He has commanded with this, loves it, and is pleased with it. However, from the people, there is he who has been granted success in this affair, and from them, there is he who has not been granted success. From that is that which has come within the authentic Hadeeth that Allaah will say to some of the polytheists on the Day of Judgment:

لَوْ أَنَّ لَكَ مَا فِي الْأَرْضِ مِنْ شَيءٍ ، أَ كُنْتَ تَفْتَدِي بِهِ ؟ قَالَ : نَعَمْ ، قَالَ فَقَدْ سَأَلْتُكَ مَا هُوَ أَهْوَنُ مِنْ هَذَا وَ أَنْتَ فِي صُلْبِ آدَمَ أَنْ لَا تُشْرِكَ بِي فَأَبِيْتَ إِلَّا أَنْ تُشْرِكَ

"If you had all that is with the earth to ransom yourself with, would you do so?" They will say: "Yes" He will say: "I asked you for less than this when you were in the backbone of Adam; that you do not associate any in worship with Me; but you refused except to associate partners." 18

Meaning, I wanted from you, legislatively, that you do not associate partners with Me. This is by way of that which has come on the tongues of the Messengers from the command to worship Him Alone and the prohibition of associating partners with Him. However, most of the creation refused except the association of partners with Allaah, the Mighty and Majestic; and they did not accept the Legislative Will.

So, he who believes in these four matters:

- Allaah's Knowledge of all things
- His Writing of them
- His Will for that which exists
- ❖ He is the Creator of all things and the One Who brought them into existence

Then he has believed in the Qadar completely. He who falls short in that then he has fallen short in having Eemaan in the Qadar, and he has not traversed upon the guidance of Ahlus-Sunnah wal-Jamaa'ah in that. He has not believed in the Qadar in its reality. Rather, he believed in some of it and disbelieved in some.

¹⁸ Reported by Al-Bukhaaree within the Saheeh (no. 6084) from the Hadeeth of Anas ibn Maalik, may Allaah be pleased with him.

Moreover, Eemaan in the Oadar does necessitate that the slave is compelled, having no will or volition, being like a leaf which is moved by the wind here and there, or like the feather in the wind-contrary to the Qadariyah Al-Mujabbirah from the Jahmiyah and others. Rather, he has the choice, free will, and volition, as well as the intellect with which to distinguish. However, this will, volition, and choice are subsidiary to the Will of Allaah, the Glorified and High. As Allaah has said:

"To whomsoever among you who wills to walk straight, And you will not, unless (it be) that Allaah wills, the Lord of the 'Alamîn (mankind, Jinn and all that exists)."

[Soorah At-Takwir 81:28-29]

Therefore, he has a choice and he is driven. He has a choice, from the perspective that Allaah gave him intellect and insight. He gave him indicators and tools and the ability to have Eemaan and actions. So he is able and he has free will and volition. He has the ability to stay away from disobedience and the ability to be obedient or to disobey. He has the ability to give charity and the ability to withhold.

He is driven from another perspective; and it is that he has no will except after the Will of Allaah and no choice except after the Choice of Allaah. He is not distinct in these things. So he has a specific will and volition which is subsidiary to the Will and Volition of Allaah. Due to this, Allaah said:

﴿ هُوَ الَّذِى يُسَيِّرُكُمُ فِي الْبَرِّ وَالْبَحْرِ حَتَىٰ إِذَا كُنتُمْ فِ الْفُلْكِ وَجَرَيْنَ بِهِمْ بِرِيجٍ طَيِّبَةٍ وَفَرِحُواْ بِهَا جَآءَتُهَا رِيحُ عَاصِفٌ وَجَآءَهُمُ الْمَوْجُ مِن كُلِّ مَكَانِ وَظَنْوًا أَنْهُمُ أُحِيطَ بِهِمْ دَعَوا اللّهَ مُخْلِصِينَ لَهُ الدِّينَ لَهِنْ أَبَعْمَ أَخْصُهُ أَلْفَينَ لَهِنْ أَلَيْنَ لَهِنْ أَنْجُمْ أُخِيطَ بِهِمْ ذَعَوا اللّهَ مُخْلِصِينَ لَهُ الدِّينَ لَهِنْ أَبْعَيْمَنَا مِنْ هَلَذِهِ لَنَكُونَ فَى مِنَ الشَّلَكِرِينَ اللهِ اللهُ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهُ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهُ اللهِ اللهُ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهُ اللهِ اللهُ اللهِ اللهِ اللهِ اللهُ اللهِ اللهِ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهِ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهِ اللهُ اللهِ اللهُ اللهِ اللهُ اللهِ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهِ اللهُ اللهِ اللهُ اللهِ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهِ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهِ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهُ اللهِ اللهُ اللهِ اللهُ ا

"He it is Who enables you to travel through land and sea, till when you are in the ships and they sail with them with a favorable wind, and they are glad therein, then comes a stormy wind and the waves come to them from all sides, and they think that they are encircled therein, they invoke Allaah, making their Faith pure for Him Alone, saying: "If You (Allaah) deliver us from this, we shall truly be of the grateful."

[Soorah Yunus 10:22]

So, the person traverses (upon his path) and he is driven. He is driven to that which Allaah created for him while traversing with that which Allaah has given him from intellect, choice, and free will. He is also driven by that which takes precedence from within the Knowledge of Allaah from the authoritative decree; and driven to that which Allaah created for him from good or evil. So it is not possible for him to oppose that which Allaah has decreed for him or to divert it from himself. With this, he is driven to that which he was created for. As the Prophet (ا مَثَلُونَا اللهُ ا said:

"Do actions. For each will find easy that which he was created for." 19

As for the people of happiness, they will be driven to the actions of the people of happiness. As for the people of misery, they will be driven to the actions of the people of misery. Then the Prophet (خَالُونَا الْمُعَالِينَ) recited:

¹⁹ Agreed upon by Al-Bukhaaree and Muslim from the Hadeeth of 'Alee, may Allaah be pleased with him.

"As for him who gives (in charity) and keeps his duty to Allaah and fears Him, And believes in Al-Husna (i.e., the best—Paradise), We will make smooth for him the path of ease (goodness). But he who is a greedy miser and thinks himself self-sufficient, And belies Al-Husna, We will make smooth for him the path for evil."

[Soorah Al-Lail 92:5-10]

The authenticity of this Hadeeth is agreed upon from the Hadeeth of 'Alee ibn Aboo Taalib, may Allaah be pleased with him. From this, the believer knows the difference between the 'Aqeedah of the pious predecessors and the 'Aqeedah of the Mu'tazilah, the Qadariyah negationists, and the Qadariyah Al-Mujabbirah.

The Qadariyah Al-Mujabbirah went to extremes in affirming the Qadar to the point that they said that the slave has no volition or free will. They have erred in this but were correct by believing in the Qadar. As for the Qadariyah negationists, they went to extremes in negating the Qadar and exaggerated in that. They erred in this to the highest degree, but were correct in affirming free will and choice for the slave. They erred by making him distinct in that.

Ahlus-Sunnah wal-Jamaa'ah takes the truth from the two groups and leaves the falsehood that is with them. Thus, it is obligatory upon the people of truth that when they refute the people of falsehood that they distinguish and be equitable, that they say: You say such and such. We are with you upon this but against you on that. We are with you in the truth that you have said, such as Eemaan in the Qadar, but we are not with you regarding the servant being compelled. Rather, he has a choice and free will.

It is said to the Mu'tazilah and their likes: We are with you in the fact that the servant has choice and free will; however, we are not with you in (your statement) that Allaah, the Glorified, is ignorant (regarding matters) and the rejection of His Knowledge and Will.

Similarly, it is said to the Shee'ah:²⁰ We are with you in love of the family of the Prophet and love for 'Alee, may Allaah be pleased with him and make him pleased; for he and those who traversed upon his methodology were from the elite of the companions of Allaah's Messenger (المَلْمُ اللَّهُ اللَّا اللَّا اللَّا اللَّهُ اللّلْمِ اللَّا اللَّا اللَّهُ اللَّهُ الللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللّل As-Siddeeq, 'Umar, and 'Uthmaan, may Allaah be pleased with them all. However, we are not with you in saying that he was infallible and we are not with you in the statement that he is the (rightful) successor after the Messenger of Allaah (عَلَيْهُ الْمُعَلَّمُ). Rather, there were three before him.

²⁰ Translator's note: The noble Shaykh Saalih Al-Fawzaan was asked the following question: "May Allaah treat you well; the questioner says: 'Some of the callers and students of knowledge say, when speaking about the Shee'ah and the Raafidah, that they are our brothers. Is it permissible for us to say this and what is obligatory as it relates to this?"

The Shaykh responded: "We declare ourselves free of them before Allaah, and we declare ourselves free of this statement. They are not our brothers. By Allaah, they are not our brothers. Rather, they are the brothers of Shaytaan. This is because they revile the mother of the believers, 'Aa'ishah, may Allaah be pleased with her; the wife of the Prophet (whom Allaah chose for His Prophet (); the Siddeegah (truthful lady) daughter of As-Siddeeq. They declare Aboo Bakr and 'Umar to be disbelievers and they curse them. They declare the companions, in general, to be disbelievers, with the exception of the household (of the Prophet اکتالی) 'Alee ibn Abee Taalib; while in reality, they are enemies to 'Alee ibn Abee Taalib. 'Alee is free of them, may Allaah be pleased with him; free of them. 'Alee is OUR Imaam; he is not their Imaam. He is an Imaam of Ahlus-Sunnah, not an Imaam of the filthy Raafidah. So we free ourselves before Allaah from them. They are not our brothers. He who says they are our brothers, he should repent to Allaah and seek Allaah's forgiveness. Allaah has made obligatory upon us to free ourselves from the people of misguidance and to have allegiance for the people of Eemaan." (Refer to Shavkh Fawzaan's website for more verdicts on the Raafidah and other deviant groups: http://www.alfawzan.af.org.sa).

We are likewise not with you in that he is to be worshipped besides Allaah or that salvation is to be sought from him, and vows should be made by him. We are not with you in this, because you are in great error in this. However, we are with you in love for the family of the Prophet (المِلْمُ لِلْهُ), those of them who clung to the legislation of Allaah, and we supplicate for Allaah's Pleasure for them and we have Eemaan. that they are from the choicest of the slaves of Allaah, acting in accordance with the advice of the Messenger of Allaah (ا مَثْلِثَانِيةُ) which he said within the Hadeeth of Zayd ibn Argam:

"I am leaving amongst you two weighty matters. The first of them is the Book of Allaah. It contains guidance and Light. Take to the Book of Allaah and cling to it."

Then he said:

أَذْكُرُكُمُ اللهَ فِي أَهْلِ بَيْتِي ، أَذْكُرُكُمُ اللهَ فِي أَهْل بَيْتِي ، أَذْكُرُكُمُ اللهَ فِي أَهْل بَيْتِي

"I remind you, by Allaah, regarding my household. I remind you, by Allaah, regarding my household. I remind you, by Allaah, regarding my household." 21

Similar is said regarding all of the groups. We take from them that which is the truth and we affirm it; yet, we refute their falsehood with textual and intellectual evidences.

By way of this, it is made clear that these six fundamentals are the foundations of the religion and they are comprehensive of all that which Allaah has informed of. So he who is upright upon them in creed, statement, and action, then he has completed Eemaan and been saved from hypocrisy. This is because these fundamentals necessitate from the believer that he perform that which Allaah has made obligatory upon him, for him and the slaves. They also necessitate that he believe in all that which Allaah has informed with within His Book or that which the Messenger of Allaah (ا مَثَلِثُهُ اللهُ الله has informed with in that which has been authentically narrated from the Sunnah. He who rejects them or rejects anything from them then he is not a believer.

²¹ Reported by Muslim within the Saheeh in the Book of Merits of the Companions (no. 55).

AFFAIRS WHICH OPPOSE THESE FUNDAMENTALS

these fundamentals In summary. tremendous fundamentals, principles, foundations for this magnificent religion. It is obligatory to give them due consideration and be upright upon them in all circumstances; likewise, to free oneself from all that which opposes them. He who brings a statement or action which necessitates his disbelief, then this is an evidence for the lack of Eemaan in these fundamentals or some of them: it is the absence of correct Eemaan. This is like the one who abandons the obligatory prayer. The one who does not pray, there is no Eemaan for him based upon the correct statement which would prevent him from abandoning the prayer which is the pillar of Islaam. Due to this, the correct statement is that he is a disbeliever with major disbelief, due to the statement of the Prophet (خِنْلِاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ اللَّهُ اللَّاللَّا الللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّهُ اللَّا

بَيْنَ الرَّجُلِ وَ بَيْنَ الشِّرْكِ وَ الْكُفْرِ تَرْكُ الصَّلَاةِ man and disbelief and "Between а polytheism is the abandonment of the prayer." 22

He also said:

"The covenant that is between us and them is the prayer. He who abandons it then he has disbelieved." 23

It is reported by Imaam Ahmad and the people of the Sunan with a Saheeh chain of narration from Buraydah ibn Al-Husayn, may Allaah be pleased with him.

Similarly, he who makes mockery of Allaah, or the Messenger (مَكْنَاكُمُونَ) or Paradise, or the Fire, or the Our'aan, or whatever resembles that, he is a disbeliever by way of consensus. This is because this is mockery and belittlement, which are evidence that his claim of Eemaan is false ²² Reported by Muslim within the Book of Eemaan (no. 153) from the Hadeeth of Jaabir, may Allaah be pleased with him.

²³ Reported by An-Nasaa'ee (and others) within the Book of Prayer from the Hadeeth of Buraydah, may Allaah be pleased with him. Al-Albaanee graded it Saheeh within Saheeh Al-Jaami' (no. 4143).

and that he does not have Eemaan which would prevent him from mocking that which has preceded.

Likewise, he who disrespects the Mus'haf or smears impurities upon it or sits upon it knowing that it is the Book of Allaah, then this is evidence that this man has no Eemaan. He only claims to have Eemaan. For, if he had correct Eemaan, it would have prevented him from this action which necessitates disbelief.

Similarly, he who mocks the Messengers or belies some of them, upon them be prayers and peace, then he is a disbeliever. This is because his mockery of them or some of them, or his belying them or some of them, is evidence that his Eemaan is not correct. Rather, it is merely a claim. Upon this, the rest of the affairs which occur from the people are analytically compared. From this are the people of Musaylamah, wherein they affirmed the Messenger of Allaah (اَ مَالْمُهُمُونِينَ), believed in him, prayed, and fasted. However, they claimed that Musaylamah was a partner in the Messengership, and thus, became-according to the people of knowledge and Eemaan from the companions and those after them—disbelievers; there being no dispute amongst the people of knowledge in that, even though they prayed, fasted, and

Muhammad is the Messenger of Allaah. This is because once they said that Musaylamah was a partner in the Messengership, this was sufficient to make them disbelievers. For they belied the statement of Allaah:

"Muhammad (المَلَّالِيَّةُ) is not the father of any man among you, but he is the Messenger of Allaah and the last (end) of the Prophets."

[Soorah Al-Ahzab 33:40]

Likewise, they belied the authentic, successively narrated Ahadeeth which indicate that the Messenger of Allaah (مَالَّهُ الْمُعَلِّمُ) is the last of the Prophets and Messengers.

Likewise, the Qaadiyaanes, when they believed that Ghulam Ahmad was a Prophet which received revelation, those who had (previously) believed from amongst them. disbelievers by way of this with major disbelief. This is because they belied Allaah and His Messenger, even if he prayed and fasted and claimed to be a Muslim.

Likewise, he who does not believe that Paradise is real; or he does not believe that the Hellfire is real; or he who says that the Hellfire is not a punishment for its people-it is, rather, a source of bliss for them, as was said by the deviant Ibn 'Arabee, who is known for the statement of unity in existence (i.e., everything in existence is Allaah)-there is no doubt that this is rejection of that which the Book of Allaah, the Sunnah of His Messenger, and the consensus of the people of knowledge prove from the Hellfire being that which Allaah has prepared as a punishment, not a source of bliss. It is a recompense for that which they did from actions which Allaah prohibited for them and for that which they abandoned from that which Allaah made obligatory upon them; and for that which they denied from the things which the Messengers informed with and the Mighty Book indicates. The Our'aan is filled with verses which prove that the Fire is a punishment for its people. None denies this except an arrogant obstinate opposer or one who is ignorant and does not know anything from that which the Messengers came with, or one who has lost his mind.

CLOSING

From this, it is clear that the rulings of affairs are taken based upon the apparent meanings of the Book and the Sunnah, as well as that which Allaah and His Messenger have informed with, and upon that which has come from the Salaf of the Ummah. He who refuses that and claims that which is contrary to that which these fundamentals necessitate then his claim is false.

I ask Allaah, the Mighty and Majestic, to grant us and you success in having comprehension of His Book and the Sunnah of His Prophet (عَلَيْنَا اللَّهُ عَلَيْنَا); and to provide us and the rest of the Muslims with true Eemaan and righteous actions; and to ennoble us with firmness upon the truth until we meet him, Glorified and Exalted be He. Indeed, He is the All-Hearing and Responsive. May prayers and peace from Allaah be upon His Servant and Messenger, our Prophet Muhammad, and upon his family and companions, altogether.

APPENDIX 1- OUR CALL 24

[1]: We believe in Allaah and His Names and Attributes, as they were mentioned in the Book of Allaah and in the Sunnah of the Messenger of Allaah (مَا الْمُعَالِينَ), without tahreef (distortion), nor ta'weel (figurative interpretation), nor tamtheel (making a likeness), nor tashbeeh (resemblance), nor ta'teel (denial).

[2]: We love the Companions () of the Messenger of Allaah (ا مَلْ الْمُعَلِّمُ), and we hate those who speak against them. We believe that to speak ill of them is to speak ill of the Religion, because they are the ones who conveyed it to us. And we love the Family of the Prophet (حَيَّا لِهُ الْمُعَالِينَ اللهُ اللهُ عَلَيْهُ اللهُ عَلِيهُ اللهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلِيهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهِ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهِ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهِ عَلِي عَلَيْهِ عَلَيْهِ عَلَيْهِ عَلَيْهِ عَلَيْهِ عَلَيْهِ عَلَيْهِ عَلَيْهِ عَلِي عَلِي عَلِي عَلَيْهِ عَلَيْهِ عَلَيْهِ عَلِي عَ with love that is permitted by the Sharee'ah. Imraan Ibn Husayn (said, "O people! Learn the knowledge of the Religion from us, if you do not do so, then you will certainly be misguided."25

[3]: We love the People of Hadeeth and all of the Salaf of the Ummah from Ahlus-Sunnah. Imaam Shaatibee (d.790H) - said, "The Salafus-Saalih, the Companions, the taabi'een and their successors knew the Qur'aan, its sciences and its meanings the best."26

[4]: We despise 'ilmul-kalaam (knowledge of theological rhetoric), and we view it to be from amongst the greatest reasons for the division in the Ummah.

[5]: We do not accept anything from the books of figh (jurisprudence), nor from the books of tafseer (explanation of the Qur'aan), nor from the ancient stories, nor from the Seerah (biography) of the Prophet (المَلْمُ اللهُ اللهُ عَلَيْهُ), except that which has been confirmed from Allaah or from His Messenger (). We do not mean that we have rejected them, nor do we claim that we are not in need of them. Rather, we benefit from the discoveries of our Scholars and the jurists and other than them. However, we do not accept a ruling, except with an authentic proof.

[6]: We do not write in our books, nor do we cover in our lessons, nor do we give sermons with anything except the Qur'aan, or the authentic and authoritative hadeeth. And we detest what emanates from many books and admonishers in terms of false stories and weak and fabricated ahaadeeth. 'Abdullaah Ibnul-Mubaarak (d.181H) - said, "The authentic ahaadeeth are sufficient and the weak ahaadeeth are not needed." 27

[7]: We do not perform takfeer upon any Muslim due to any sin, except Shirk with Allaah, or the abandonment of Prayer, or apostasy. We seek refuge in Allaah from that.

[8]: We believe that the Qur'aan is the Speech of Allaah, it is not created.

[9]: We hold that our 'obligation is to co-operate with the group that traverses the methodology of the Book and the Sunnah, and what the Salaf of the Ummah were upon; in terms of calling to Allaah the Glorified, and being sincere in worship of Him, and warning from Shirk, innovations, and disobedience, and to advise all of the groups that oppose this.'28 'So cooperating upon righteousness and piety (taqwaa) and mutual advising necessitates warning

[10]: We do not deem it correct to revolt against the Muslim rulers as long as they are Muslims, nor do we feel that revolutions bring about Rather, they corrupt the reconciliation. community.

[11]: We hold that this multiplicity of present day parties is a reason for the division of the Muslims and their weakness. So therefore we set about 'freeing the minds from the fetters of blind-following and the darkness of sectarianism and party spirit.'30

[12]: We restrict our understanding of the Book of Allaah and of the Sunnah of the Messenger of Allaah (چَالْشَكِيْتِينِيُّ) to the understanding of the Salaf of the Ummah from the Scholars of hadeeth, not the blind-followers of their individuals. Rather, we take the truth from wherever it comes. And we know that there are those who claim Salafiyyah, yet Salafiyyah is free from them, since they bring to the society what Allaah has prohibited. We believe in 'cultivating the young generation upon this Islaam. purified from all that we mentioned, giving to them a correct Islamic education from the start - without any influence from the disbelieving western education.' 31

[13]: We believe that politics is a part of the Religion, and those who try to separate the Religion from politics are only attempting to destroy the Religion and to spread chaos.

[14]: We believe there will be no honour or victory for the Muslims until they return to the Book of Allaah and to the Sunnah of the Messenger of Allaah ().

[15]: We oppose those who divide the Religion into trivialities and important issues. And we know that this is a destructive da'wah.

[16]: We oppose those who put down the knowledge of the Sunnah, and say that this is not the time for it. Likewise, we oppose those who put down acting upon the Sunnah of the Messenger of Allaah ().

[17]: Our da'wah and our 'aqeedah is more beloved to us than our own selves, our wealth and our offspring. So we are not prepared to part with it for gold, nor silver. We say this so that no one may have hope in buying out our da'wah, nor should he think that it is possible for him to purchase it from us for deenaar or dirham.

[18]: We love the present day Scholars of the Sunnah and hope to benefit from them and regret the passing away of many of them. Maalik said (d.179H) Imaam knowledge of hadeeth is your flesh and blood and you will be asked concerning it on the Day of Judgment, so look who you are taking it from." 32
